RUN-DMC, Can You Rock It Like This

If I eat, a little kid, sticks his finger in my plate I be signing autographs, for three months straight I got jet-set women, who offer me favors My face is a thousand lipstick flavors Need a sip of lemonade, I'm a slave to my trade From all these lights my complexion might fade Secretary overworked, by a money hungry jerk Got a letter, answer woman, won't you freak out on my shirt?

Well can you rock it like this?	I can rock it like that
Can you rock it like this?	I can rock it like that
Huh!! echoes

Your ears are clogged, your head as hard as a log My privacy robbed, let me do my job You funny lookin slob eatin shiskabob You're the reason why my eyes are on the doorknob

Can you rock it like this? But can you rock it like this?

I think I rock it like that Homeboy I rock it like that

I'm straining not complaining for a casual life Something normal nuttin formal three kids and a wife I'm dying from the spying that you're putting me through I perspire I'm on fire when I'm thinking of you

But can you rock it like this?	I can rock it like that
Well can you rock it like this?	I can rock it like that

Can you rock it like this? But can you rock it like this? Huh!! echoes I can rock it like that I can rock it like that

News reporters, invade my borders If I think it I will say it, you might have a recorder And then, UHH-OHH, the nation's in upheaval Old dating always thinking at me evil You're stepping on my heels, you're breathing down my neck I'm not Rodney Dangerfield, so give me respect

Can you rock it like this? But can you rock it like this?	I-I can rock it like that Homeboy I rock it like that
Can you rock it like this? But can you rock it like this? Hu-Huh-Huh!! echoes	Yo I can rock it like that I can rock it like that
What it all adds up to, is just one thing Run-D.M.C is, the king of the swing And if you mess with us, you'll be a real short liver You may be big but our bodyguard's bigger echoes
Can you rock it like this? Can you rock it like this?	l can rock it like that I can rock it like that echoes
