

RUN-DMC, Word Is Born

[Run]□Let's begin, to talk!!

[D.M.C.]

1990, and this is what's goin on to the break of dawn
24/7, Run-D.M.C. in effect
That's ??
All those weak-rhyming, rewindin MC's

[Run]□That means you pause

[both]□My word is born

[Run]

Yeah, speakin on truth from the old school on down to the youth
Since the days, that I was the age of "three"; stop - listen to me
This is how it used to be - "go!";
Stand on another line, why?
You did a crime now the time is mine
I school you and your crew, why?
Youse is my brother
Stop - sellin and killin one another
Take some time, to see what's missin
Brothers in the ?, we on a mission Thinkin back from the sale you made and back home, a grave is what your brother paid
His life, because of a system
Now you think you're down, you cold dissed him
Shut up, cause I'm fed up, with this culture
And flyin high in the sky, a big vulture Waitin and debatin, to see who's next for "brothers and sisters"; of the opposite sex
So hold on, keep it intact and go on, flow on, positive black B-boys be black be proud, right on
"You know we're bout to"; be black and my word is born
My word is born
My word is born
My word is born

[D.M.C.]

Let's, let's..

Let's begin to talk truth -- it seems that y'all make a big out of things that are small
We all play the same game for fame to claim
?? bright lights and write your name
They'll soup you up, til you think you're large Got a spot on tour, but I'm still in charge
A big nigga's hittin it, don't renege Bust a rap like a cap like a snap of twig that extends from the hands of a branch on a tree
Like you new jack rappers, run from me
I got proof of truth, I cut and go raw (Word em up D!) My word is born

{cuts by Jay and samples to the last ten seconds}

[D.M.C.]

1990's
And ain't nuttin changed, PUNK!
