

Run Into The Shadows, You're The Reason They

This is last night to get this right again.

So Sing this song in flames,

Then carry on moving.

Dance 'Til your feet get soar,

Set fire to the floor.

You're the reason they say high school never ends.

Can I make this easier for you to understand?

We've only got three more hours,

So let's just make it last.

And dance with me girl, like this room is made of fire.

If we don't last through the night, then girl call me a liar.

So put on your make up, arrange your fake face.

Would it be so important if people didn't go all nice?

But that's not the case.

So put on your red dress,

Slip on those high heels,

Brace yourself until you're the best and make them believe that you are real. (You're real)

Can I make this easier for you to understand?

We've only got three more hours,

So let's make it last.

And dance with me girl, like this room is made of fire.

If we don't last through the night, then girl call me a liar.

And I said "Not much longer",

As I whispered in your ear.

As these lights fade out,

You'll watch me disappear.

I'll disappear.

You'll walk on. [x3]

Can I make this easier for you to understand?

We've only got three more hours,

So let's just make it last.

And dance with me girl, like this room is made of fire.

If we don't last through the night, then girl call me a liar.
