

Run Level Zero, K.A.D.O.

Evil lurks beneath the ice / cosmos calls, it's time to rise
A cancer spreads below the sea / reaching out for you and me
The end has long since begun / once they're here, too late to run
Laws of faith become undone / far older than the burning sun

Consumed by dark desire / apocalyptic fire
Thousands of thousands years / a starless cold empire

Deep One atrocity / a threat felt subconsciously
Pungent smell in the air / getting closer, getting near Horrors you can't abide / terrors of the eventide
Reality will twist and turn as the seas begin to burn

They have no need for reason / no salvation! desperation!
Pray for a swift demise / no compassion! pure aggression!
They will tear our world apart / fast progression! total infection!
Once they leave their deep sea trench / no hope, emptiness
