

Run Level Zero, Shadows Merging

intense vapours
reading deadly plead my naked fear gagged in my bed sending icing shivers down the drain I want to touch, manipulate

I no longer hear them cry soft and quivering, abducted minds
cold and shivering, abducted eyes malformed posers ego raping mine structures falling down under strain shadows merging trigger your defence acts of madness, matter over mind
