

Run Level Zero, Somnium Ex Machina

Who can you trust when everyone plays along
A media charade / get up, stay straight
Lies in the papers / lies on the screen
Justice's a pipe dream / the truth's too obscene

Lies and delusion / pay what you owe
Total annihilation / reap what you sow
Lies and delusion / pay what you owe
Swift retaliation / reap what you sow

End the game / stop and break free
Stuck in the slow lane / nod and agree
The green whip will lash you again
The ruling class, are they to blame
You must raise up, you must take charge
The fight is yours, open the flood gates

Point the finger / throw your stones
Play the blame game / bitch and moan
It's not the rules / it's not the laws
It's not morality / that is the cause
That you are stuck in a rut / look inside and find the source
