

Run Level Zero, Under The Gun

Nowhere to hide / the ink has dried
You agreed to the covenant / no time for fear
You signed
Now death is a ride away
Reach the sky / clad in steel
You're going down in flames
You'll get your name / on a tag
Last sleep in a plastic bag

Take action / launch the mission
Join the party of the imbecile
Raise your fist for law and order
The mind suffocates under your gun

Oh so righteous / religious asshole
The system's going down
You fucking hicks / waving flags
Fear of freedom / burning books
There's no god above man / fool the masses into ignorance
Cannibalize on their minds / grow fat on their innocence

Forced to follow / right hand path
No alternatives / there's no free will
Fatalist / no ambition
Watching the world go by
Breaking free / from our bondage
Realize that we're ruled by the weak
Revolution / upcoming battle
You see, you are fighting yourself
