

Rune, Paradise

The rays of the sun climb in through the clouds
And the night sky starts falling down
She stands alone, eyes closed and Arms open.

The edge is just below her feet
The eyes of the water stare deep
And soon the sounds .....
The time is not in mind
It's in her eyes and paradise
And her body lies down, yeah

The night
The water
Take me under
Cause I feel the weight of the world on my shoulders
I
You're watching hands
And getting older
Got me to the edge of paradise
