

Runner Runner, Dedicate

All I hear is your voice
A whisper away
Always calls to me
All I keep with me
Are memories of you
Wonder what it's like out there
Hoping all your good dreams come true

When you float out above
Does the world finally come in to view?

Today I dedicate to you
Today I dedicate to you
I won't let you go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart it just won't be the same
Today I dedicate to you

All I hear are your words
They carry me, carry me
Everywhere I go
And all I dream of
Is me next to you
Did you find yourself out there?
Did you really find out the truth

Well I guess that we knew
That we'd all see the angel in you
When you float out above
Does the world finally come in to view?

Today I dedicate to you
Today I dedicate to you
I won't let you go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart it just won't be the same
There's a place in my heart that just won't be the same
Without you, you, you

Can I say I miss you down here?
And you're not, not alone
Can I say I miss you down here?
No I'm not, not alone
Today I dedicate to you

Today I dedicate to you
Today I dedicate to you
Today I dedicate to you
Today I dedicate to you
I won't let you go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart it just won't be the same
I won't let you go
I need you to stay
There's a place in my heart it just won't be the same
There's a place in my hear that just won't be the same
Without you, you, you
