

Runner Runner, The Breakup Song

Feels like we're breaking up.
I used to think that we would never part,
But now I'm dreaming with a broken heart.
It's not the worst part.

I met this girl about a year ago,
She moved right in, I tried to take it slow.
I never wanted anyone to know,
This could be different.

Feels like we're breaking up.
Baby, we keep burning up.
How's this love supposed to be?
Maybe we can make it up.

We beak up, we make up, we break up, we make up.
But it feels like we're breaking up.

Now I'm waiting for the right time,
The little words are always hard to find.
I know it's hard to let go,
I know, I know.

Feels like we're breaking up.
Baby, we keep burning up.
How's this love supposed to be?
Maybe we can make it up.

We beak up, we make up, we break up, we make up.
And it feels like we're breaking up.
I pick up your hang up, we hook up, I give up.
And it feels like we're breaking up.

This is not the end, no it's never over.
We can work it out, we can work it out.
Take another chance, so baby here it goes again.

"Girl: Hey babe, what's up?
Guy: Hey listen, we gotta talk.
Girl: Okay, what's going on?
Guy: Well things haven't really been working out for us.
Girl: Wait, what?
Guy: And honestly it's you, not me.
Girl: Oh my god you're crazy. Are you serious? You can't talk to me like this. Who do you think you Guy: Oh my god I gotta get outta here."

Feels like we're breaking up.
Baby, we keep burning up.
How's this love supposed to be?
Maybe we can make it up.(x2)

We beak up, we make up, we break up, we make up.
And it feels like we're breaking up.
I pick up your hang up, we hook up, I give up.
And it feels like we're breaking up.
Baby can we make it up?
