

Running Wild, Evolution

Cries - for one lost nation reaching out against the wall Lies - to generations feeding minds that would not fall Danger for the free
As they reach for the sky
I should be laughing now Bu it's death in disguise Pain - that sees no borders empty lives alone to feel Insane - but who's to help us evil from the boot of steel Doesn't hurt to flee Pride when you die
Should I be crying now
Their deeds are full of lies
