

Running Wild, Fistfull of Dynamite

Heedless they make their pile
Freeloading monkeys on our back
Bad to the bone and spineless

A dirty, lying, riotous pack

Ostrich policy, wrong way

Don't fall asleep or you'll have to pay

Draconian penalty, right way

Ready to explode

Like a fistful of dynamite, my fuse is burning fast

Like a fistful of dynamite, a bomb heading for your ass

Like a fistful of dynamite, my fuse is running short

Like a fistful of dynamite, don't push to far or we will be your court

They drain us of our lifeblood

But we are dredging up the truth

Staunch as a steely dreadnought

So they'll never stir up our truth

Ostrich policy, wrong way

Don't fall asleep or you'll have to pay

Draconian penalty, right way

Ready to explode

Like a fistful of dynamite, my fuse is burning fast

Like a fistful of dynamite, a bomb heading for your ass

Like a fistful of dynamite, my fuse is running short

Like a fistful of dynamite, don't push to far or we will be your court

Don't push too far, we're fed up with your tricks,

Yes, fear our law, you will get your deserved kicks

[Solo]

Ostrich policy, wrong way

Don't fall asleep or you'll have to pay

Draconian penalty, right way

Ready to explode

Like a fistful of dynamite, my fuse is burning fast

Like a fistful of dynamite, a bomb heading for your ass

Like a fistful of dynamite, my fuse is running short

Like a fistful of dynamite, don't push to far or we will be your court
