

Runrig, Proterra

Proterra
As I walk along these shores
I am the history within
As I climb the mountainside
Breaking Eden again

Dark the day, dark the night
The warring dust, the morning tribe
Crushed by a million suns
Here the heart of you lies

Over land and sea
I'll come fighting for you
Over land and sea
A dawn is breaking before us

Proterra, take this hand
The open wound, the promised land
Breaking the waves, spread the oars
Cast our badge for the shore

Over land and sea
I'll come fighting for you
Over land and sea
A dawn is breaking before us

Proterra, take this hand
The open wound, the promised land
Breaking the waves, spread the oars
Cast our badge for the shore

Over land and sea
Over land and sea
Over land and sea
Over land and sea

Over land and sea (I'll come fighting for you)
Over land and sea (I'll come fighting for you)
Over land and sea (I'll break away)
Over land and sea
Over land and sea (Over land and sea)
Over land and sea (I'll come fighting for you)
Over land and sea (I'll break away)
Over land and sea

As I walk along these shores
I am the history within
