

Ruslan Alehno, Hasta La Vista (Eurovision 2008

You shone at me like a blinding star
I've just never seen such a light so far
All my days were fairy tales
I begged you to look in my loving eyes
But you were as cold as arctic ice
And your laugh has killed my love
The story is close to the final cut
It won't be the end, but a running start
So don't be upset and don't ask me why
I say goodbye
Hasta la vista, baby
I gonna miss you, maybe
You can be blissfully happy
Though it's not fair
Hasta la vista, baby
I gonna miss you, maybe
Hasta la vista, blame me
But I don't care
Hasta la vista
No way to repair the broken glass
There's nothing to share nor to discuss
Now I see, you're not for me
You've cast me away to a desert shore
You've shattered my heart, now you keep the score
Have a rest, you've done your best
The story is close to the final cut
It won't be the end, but a running start
So don't you pretend you can't get it why
I say goodbye
Hasta la vista, baby
I gonna miss you, maybe
You can be blissfully happy
Though it's not fair
Hasta la vista, baby
I gonna miss you, maybe
Hasta la vista, blame me
But I don't care
Hasta la vista
