

Russ Castella, Let Go

(feat. Romina)

The hands that once were held so tightly
Are spread apart so far right now
The lips that once were kissed so lightly
Are kissing someone else right now
The bodies that which belong together
Are wondering around alone
The memories I have inside me
I wish to pass to you alone

My memories
Cannot be separated
I must let go (x3)
I must let go of you

(you can't jus' let me go)

(jus' let me go)
