

Russell Crowe & 30 Odd Foot Of Grunts, Judas C

(Si Bheag, Si Mhor (trad.) Arr. J. Morris, Lyrics R.Crowe)

They are coming today to take her away
Cause a man in a wig said
The sky is always blue
Drive on drive on
Drive on Judas Cart
Taking my little girl away

I am told I am not welcome in my own home
By a woman who once drove away
Drive on drive on
Drive on Judas Cart
Taking my little girl away

It must have been another life
When I called her my wife
Can't remember any loving at all
But she left me and she dumped her some seven years ago
Now I am legally bound and I am morally appalled
Drive on drive on
Drive on Judas Cart
