

Rusted Root, River In A Cage

Well through the window she comes, & through the window she comes,
she got a little rope tied, tied to her leg, where it leads to I don't know,
But you can hand your babies up to the higher ground.
To the hairy one's blessed upon their crown

I'm comin' down like a river in a cage, the monkey see the monkey do,
I'm comin' down like a river in cage,
I'll run my hands through to you
