

Ruth Ann, Letter To Heaven

You gave me life, you gave me love
See myself running into your arms
It took some years to understand
You're gone too soon, can't touch your hand

This is my letter to heaven
I know that you are there
I have so many things to say
I miss you for all my life
Your frank child

You're part of me
With every breath, I remember and feel
The touch of love that will never die
Visible or invisible, I feel your near

This is my letter to heaven
I know you are there
I have so many things to say
I miss you for all my life
Your frank child

This is my letter to heaven
I know that you are there
I have so many things left to say
I miss you dad, for all my life

This is my letter to heaven
I know that you are there
I have so many things left to say
I miss you dad, for all my life
Your frank child
