

Ruth Ann, No Surrender

Time ago I had a dream
That you'll share your life with me
And what's now?
I was giving all I got
But for you it's not enough, lonely heart

It's time for me, to realise and see
That it's my life to live and not surrender

I was showing you my love,
Every time I had the chance
And what's now?
Many days I felt the cold,
Many days your heart of stone, it is so

It's time for me, to realise and see
That it's my life to live and not surrender
But dreams are dreams
I'll get the things I need
Cos it's my life,
I wanna live and not surrender

It's time for me, to realise and see
That it's my life to live and not surrender
