

Ruth B, 28 - feat. Dean Lewis

Put you first just like you wanted
Gave you me you took for granted
Now here I am at 28
All my friends I hardly know them
I don't sing cause you're still broken
I almost threw it all away
How did we go from movies on Tuesdays
To all our memories packed in a suitcase
Carried the weight for you for far too long

Even though I loved you
You know I had to leave
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me
Cause they say time heals all wounds
But your wounds cut so deep
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me

It was hard to be there for you
When my dreams kept falling short and
You were the only thing I knew
You were always there when I was falling
You promised me that you were all in
I made you everything and nothing all at once

Cause even though I loved you
You know I had to leave
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me
Cause they say time heals all wounds
But your wounds cut so deep
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me

Yeah I love you more than I love myself and I hate that there is nobody else
Yeah I love you more than I love myself and I hate that there is nobody

Cause even though I loved you
You know I had to leave
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me
Cause they say time heals all wounds
But your wounds cut so deep
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me

Even though I loved you
Wish I didn't have to leave
I still just wanna hold you as you fall asleep
And I hope it all works out and you find everything you need
I guess I had to lose you on the way to finding me
