

Ruth, Standing Still

Lately I'm thinking that I don't feel quite like myself
And honestly, I feel like I've turned into somebody else

You can change me like nothing else ever could
You could love me like no one else ever would

The world keeps moving
I just keep standing still
Look at all you're doing
Nothing could fill my heart

The world keeps moving
And I just keep standing still
Look at all you're doing
Nothing could fill my heart

Like you do
Like you do
Oh, like you do

When you uncover my eyes
I see you plain as daylight
You're working all around me
Creation speaks so loudly

You could change me like nothing else ever could
You could love me like no one else ever would

The world keeps moving
And I just keep standing still
Look at all you're doing
Nothing could fill my heart

The world keeps moving
And I just keep standing still
Look at all you're doing
Nothing could fill my heart

Like you do
Like you do
Oh, like you do

They can't love me like you do
There ain't nobody quite like you
They can't love me, there's nobody

The world keeps moving
And I just keep standing still
Look at all you're doing
Nothing could fill my heart

The world keeps moving
And I just keep standing still
Look at all you're doing
Nothing could fill my heart
