

Ruth, Work It Out

Sit down
I wanna tell you what I feel
Right now
Like there's nothing left for us

To talk about
The words won't come out
They won't come out

Write it down
I got everything to say
Scream it out
You wouldn't listen anyway

Your words won't come out
Your words won't come out

Every morning it's a battle
Just to wake up
All hate no love
When you break up

They say we could find out
If we start right now
They say we could find out

It's been
Three years since I knew
Who I was
And I swear that I'm too young

Your words won't come out
Your words won't come out

And all speak
And none said
It echoes
Through my head

Your words won't come out
Your words won't come out

Every morning it's a battle
Just to wake up
All hate no love
When you break up

And they say we could find out
If we start right now
They say we could find out

And every day I'm feeling more alone
Would you call out to me?
Cause I want to believe

And I can't make it out here on my own
Would you call out to me?
Cause I want to believe

And every day I'm feeling more alone
Would you call out to me?

And I can't make it out here on my own

Would you call out to me?
Cause I want to believe

Every morning it's a battle
All hate no love!

And they say we could find out

And they say we could find out
