

Rx Bandits, Analog Boy

She lays awake tonight
This ain't the way she wants it
And its so bad she cries herself to sleep
She can't have the body of a model
She wants it, she reads it in the magazines
Analog boy in a digital world
Don't be so digital
Analog boy in a digital world
Turn off your radio
We're so helpless to our technology
I don't wanna be controlled by machines
Analog boy in a digital world
Don't be so digital
Our parents wonder
Why kids are growing up so fast
Conform, believe anything on tv
Find your identity soon, and let the channel change you
Analog boy in a digital world
Don't be so digital
Analog boy in a digital world
Turn off your radio
We're so helpless to our technology
I don't wanna be controlled by machines
Analog boy in a digital world
I couldn't believe my eyes
When I woke up this morning
I looked at the sidewalk and there was a million people dressed the same
Who answered their cell phones at the same time
And all popped a pill for the same disorder
Can't be fat, no we can't have that now we're so far gone
Don't you see that we're so far gone, yeah
Analog boy in a digital world
Don't be so digital
Analog boy in a digital world
Don't be so digital
Analog boy in a digital world
Turn off your radio
We're so helpless to our technology
Well I don't wanna be controlled by machines
Analog boy in a digital world
Well I'm giving up
We're gonna do it right this time
