

Rx Bandits, Babylon

It's time to listen up all good people and take a look around
I know that everything is looking normal
but something is unsound.
It seems to me that we are constricted
by a force unfair.
Can't do what we all want to do or you'll wind up in jail.
Babylon don't make the rules
They try to play us all for fools.
I'm feeling like our voices are unspoken,
and our needs unmet.
Freedom is what we all want so freedom
is what we will get.
So put up all your hands together,
and squeeze them real tight.
If you're paying income tax, then you're helping to build bombs...
What do you have to say about that?
