

Rx Bandits, Consequential Apathy

Now that you're gone I'm regretting every word I said.
This dark day my veins are burning
Trying to get these thoughts out of my head
So what do you think?
Do you even blink when I'm screaming and calling your name?
Just how I like it - blank and indifferent
Are you too ignorant to feel ashamed?

Wake up! Wake up! Wake up! This world is changing.

Someone else's sorrow - I can't hear it.
Someone else's sorrow now. x2
(and take back life's remote control)

Where you going? What's this life for?
How you want to be when you grow old?
What you want to say?
What you want to do?
Nobody's a victim it's only up to you
Wise men say you reap what you have sown, only what u have sown.

Wake up! Wake up! Wake up! This world is changing.

Someone else's sorrow - I can't hear it.
Someone else's sorrow now. x2
(and take back life's remote control)

Now that you're gone you're regretting every word you said
I have just one more question now for anyone who cannot motivate
Is this just routine trained behavior or does the TV set control your life?
Go!
Create!
