

RxBandits, Progress

now you're thinking i'm so stupid, that's alright you don't know just what you're saying and in due time what i'm going through, well i don't care and you won't prosper what i say to you goes in one ear and out the other now i'm taking three steps forward and two steps back i've temporarily lost my focus and gone i've off track
what i say to you goes in one ear and out the other

- chorus -

please someone, come quickly, i've gotten stuck inside my head please help me out while i still can i've gotten stuck inside this little place and no one's helping nowhere to go, already ran

givin' it one more shot oh ya gotta let me try to get my life on track, on track its five in the morning in the studio high up in the stereo i'm loosing my mind sayin' i give it up because i'm feeling out of place don't wanna hear it, feel it now what i'm saying

- chorus -

move forward, move forward, move forward now
no fussing, no fighting, no crying tonight
