Ry Cooder, GO HOME, GIRL

(A. Alexander)

Well, me and Frank we're the best of friends And our friendship will never end But it would hurt him so for him to know That I'm in love with his girlfriend

Now, the love of a girl and the love of a friend Are two things you can't compare Though my heart will ache I will let it break 'Cause I know that it just ain't fair So go on home girl, let's call it a night You better go home girl, this just ain't right

But before you go I want you to know That I love you, yes I do And though it breaks my heart for us to part Still I know Frank loves you too

Well, you say that a we can make him see We have a love that's really real But I think that he is just like me And I don't know just how he'd feel

Darling, people know it would hurt him so If you told him that it must end And I could never hold the love I stole From a man I call my best friend

Go on home girl, you better go home, girl Go on home, you better move on

Me and Frank been friends for so long And our friendship is really strong He gives me his car to go for a ride Never knows how long I'll be gone

Well, I'm trying to forget all the things that we've done While Frank is just a-waiting back home Girl you can't go ride with me anymore That's the way it's got to be from now on

Go on home!

Uhn, hun. Better go home, girl

Uhn, hun. Now you better move on, girl

Uhn, hun. Better go home, girl Uhn, hun. You better move on, girl
