

Ryan Adams, Petal In The Rainstorm

Oh my sweet valentine
Guess I knew you well
Left my old better half
To be all by myself

Though I don't have long, I know
I'll just let my loving show
'Cause there ain't nothing like a petal in a rainstorm
No, there ain't nothing like a petal in a rainstorm
Oh, there ain't nothing like a petal in a rainstorm
Love won't keep you warm, my dear.

Oh my sweet serenade
Guess we tore it up
Nighttime sang our song
Until she gave it up

Though I don't have long, I know
I'll just let my loving show
'Cause there ain't nothing like a petal in a rainstorm
No, there ain't nothing like a petal in a rainstorm
No, there ain't nothing like a petal in a rainstorm
Love won't keep you warm, my dear.

We're never far from home
That place where we all go
Now I can't wait to get there sometimes
Sometimes it's such fun to be alive.
