

Ryan Adams, Silver Wings

silver wings shining in the sunlight roaring engines headed somewhere in flight they're taking you away
leaving me lonely
silver wings slowly fading out of sight
roaring engines headed somewhere in flight

don't leave me i cry don't take that airplane ride but you lock me outta your mind left me standing here behind

roaring engines headed somewhere in flight

slowly fading out of sight
