

Ryan Cabrera, Enemies

[Verse 1]

In the backseat of a yellow taxi feel your heart beat deception is intense and you think I didn't know Its like Bombay traffic in my mind, how can you keep up with all your lies, and you think I didn't notice...

[Chorus]

I said keep your enemies close and your lovers closer I'm letting you know the show is over now so lean in closer now
keep your hands up
so I can see
I think its too late
you got the best of me so lean in closer keep your enemies close and your lovers closer

And its hard to but you cant refuse The first to volunteer to be abused liked this don't act like you don't know Were in the bedroom of your very best friend I'm fucking guilty

[Chorus]

I said keep your enemies close
so I can see
I think its too late
you got the best of me
so lean in closer [x2]
keep your enemies close and
Don't say that were something were not
If we think to much then were gonna get caught Don't say that were something were not
The truth is maybe I wanna get caught Keep your enemies close and your lovers closer [x2]

[Chorus]

so I can see
I think its too late
you got the best of me
