

Ryan Ferguson, Suddenly

Suddenly - Ryan Ferguson

Suddenly and I just found myself waiting for the phone to ring And Im hiding out simply cause its scaring me Im not relying on the people that I oughta be another month or two of everybody testing me

And its time
and its time
and its time
and its time

so much to do and Ill be happy just to open up this parachute as Im fallin for somebody holdin on to you wake me up when it is over if I get through and all the things to you I promise will be concerned

and its time
and its time
and its time
and its time

Im tired of ridin on these bad beats close cause describe your negativity so far Im kickin this bad habit on my own

Im not surprised thats its never obvious to all the other guys when your loves invisible like cloudy s everybody get behind her you can form a line just dont be comfortrable standing there your whole l

and its time
and its time
and its time
and its time...
