

Ryan Malcolm, Absolutely Perfect

Sometimes we don't
Haven't a clue
What we are doing
We fumble around
Out in the wind
Like a piece of paper
I had a picture of what this love was about
It's somehow different
From what I'm looking at

Sometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth
I need you now
Not always right
Not always roses, yeah
It's absolutely perfect, absolutely perfect

Oh, we make a ton of stupid mistakes
That's just the beauty, yeah
'Cause nothing around
Comes when your life
Just doesn't go through it
I took a picture of what this love was about Yeah, it turned out different than what I'm looking at

Sometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth
I need you now
Not always right
Not always roses, yeah
It's absolutely perfect, absolutely perfect

It's absolutely perfect, absolutely perfect
Absolutely perfect, absolutely perfect

Sometimes we don't
Haven't a clue
What we are doing, yeah, now
We fumble around
Out in the wind
Like a piece of paper
I had a picture of what this love was about
It's somehow different from what I'm looking at

Sometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth
I need you now
Not always right
Not always roses, yeah

Sometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth
I need you now
NOt always right
NOt always roses, yeah
Yeah
