

Ryan Malcolm, Ride

Ohhowooah.

Hot summer night, lets go for a ride.
Lets leave the city lights behind.
Turn the radio on, there's a Sheryl Crow song
And she's soaking up the sun.
Shine on, shine on, and on.

It's time, to go for a ride.
We'll find the perfect wave to carry us away.
Lets go for a ride, lets go for a ride.

I'm looking at you, and I'm loving the view.
It's like a California dream come true.
Just yesterday, we were lost in L.A.
Now we're soaking up the sun.
Shine on, shine on, and on.
Yeah eee ahh

It's time, to go for a ride.
We'll find the perfect wave to carry us away.
Lets go for a ride, lets go for a ride, lets go for a ride.

Yeahyeahyeahyeahyeahyeah, yeah
Yeahyeahyeahyeahyeahyeah, yeah

Shine on, shine on, and on.
Yeahhhhhh

It's time, to go for a ride.
We'll find the perfect wave to carry us away.
Lets go for a ride, lets go for a ride.

And, it's time, to go for a ride.
We'll find the perfect wave to carry us away.
Lets go for a ride, lets go for a ride.
