

Ryan Pugal, Cause I Do

There's a Taxi outside
In the pouring Rain
And I hear you calling out my name
While the tears run down your face
How can I just let you go
You see I knew from the start
Hoping you would never break my heart
Baby I love you
Baby I need you
Baby I wish you'd Stay
And now that your gone
What am I here doing all alone
Do you miss me
Do you think of me still
Cause I do
