

Ryan Shupe & The RubberBand, All I Need

I've been to new york city central park then headed out to upstate lake champlain crossed up to montreal and heard a band playing mandolins while we were standing in the rain I've seen castle walls and waterfalls and bridges spanning over Venetian waterways backpack summer drifting through the mountains filled with European hostel stays but all I need is you, here, falling in my arms and me, there, subject to your charms and I don't know if I have ever felt this way before all I need is you

I've sailed out in the san Francisco bay And I've seen fireworks light up the night I've Eaten dinner with good friends Authentic Mexican patio dining in the moonlight I've Spent days skiing sunny powdered peaks And hiking up to zions where the angels land I've Dropped off cliffs into the crystal blue And I've set up tents on golden sand but all I need is you, here, falling in my arms

and me, there, subject to your charms
and I don't know if I have ever felt this way before
all I need is you

I've been all over the rocky mountains Splashed in England's hyde park fountains Seen denali rising up at three A.M.
Watched the wind blow through the red wood forest Heard the tabernacle chorus singing songs like angels do in heaven

but all I need is you, here, falling in my arms
and me, there, subject to your charms
and I don't know if I have ever felt this way before
all I need is you
