

Ryan Shupe & The RubberBand, Lonely Person

She's a very lonely person
Standing on the corner
Eating dinner in the restaurant
She's just looking for a friend
She acts like she has seen you before
But you don't know he she is
She's a very lonely person
A broken heart to mend

There ain't gonna be no Christmas cards
Ain't gonna be no birthday balloons
Ain't gonna be no turkey dinner waiting at thanksgiving
No flowers they'll send
And There ain't gonna be no friendly calls to just say hi
But she's waiting by the phone
She's very lonely person
Just looking for a friend

Now she's walking down the parkway
Feeding all the pigeons
She's hiding in the shadows
In the middle of the day
She's sitting on the park bench waiting for someone she knows
But they all just pass her by
She's a very lonely person
Just not sure what to say

there ain't gonna be no Christmas cards
Ain't gonna be no birthday balloons
Ain't gonna be no turkey dinner waiting at thanksgiving
No flowers they'll send
And There ain't gonna be no friendly calls to just say hi
But she's waiting by the phone
She's very lonely person
Just looking for a friend

there ain't gonna be no Christmas Cards
Ain't gonna be no birthday balloons
Ain't gonna be no turkey dinner waiting at thanksgiving
No flowers they'll send
And There ain't gonna be no friendly calls to just say hi
But she's waiting by the phone
She's very lonely person
Just looking for a friend
