

Ryan Shupe & The RubberBand, Love You 'Til I Die

It seems I don't know just what to do
I'm not much for competition and boy he's smooth
It's hard for me cause I don't let my feelings show
But to help you choose me over him I've got to let you know
That I will

I will love you til I die, I will love you til I die
I will love you til I die and forever more

He's a fast talking Romeo and when you talk to me
The words just come out slow
But unlike him the words I say are true
Just like these words that I offer you
And I will

I can see the stars the stars are falling tonight
I can see the moon the moon is shining so bright
I can see the sun the sun is setting so light
And I can see the stars the stars are falling

I can't dance to well and my singing's pretty fair
Can't give you fancy cars to drive expensive necklaces to wear
I can offer you the sun, the moon, the stars up above
Laughter every day and my endless love
And I will
