Ryan Shupe & The RubberBand, Simplify

I say what the hey I've got bills to pay I work all day I got no time to play And what's more, knocking on my door Is the tax collector and I'm poor

See there's too many bills too many pills Too many features and too many frills No money, too many things to buy Too many ways to split the pie

I've got to simplify Simplify my life I've got to simplify Simplify

I've got to smell the flowers enjoy the ride I've got to open up my eyes and see what's outside All the things I miss each day 'Cause I'm driving in the fast lane And it's making me insane

And I don't want to be that way I want to be free today From responsibility that brings excess duress I've got to enjoy more and stress less

I've got to simplify Simplify my life I've got to simplify Simplify

That's great, I'm late I'm always in a hurry for a meeting in the state Of confusion, a delusion An illusion I've taken much too far I'm always living in the future or the past But time flies too fast I've got to make it last So enjoy, relax, chill out Just give it a try

I've got to simplify Simplify my life I've got to simplify Simplify
