

Ryker's, Without A Second Thought without a second thought i would choose the path i am now walking on without any doubts or regrets i think this is the place where i belong times have changed and so have i so why should i give in before ive even tried and so another page is turned in the filthy book of entertainment as nobody learns a simple thing and open minds only enforce restraint so ill do whats right for me even if for you its wrong so much for the reason that ill still be here...

a) ...when youre gone
b) ...when youre longtime gone and now its time to set the record straight to see how i can rely on all the people that surround to figure out if its a new beginning or only the same old story with just a different sound?
BLABLALAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
