

Rykers, Enough Is Enough

you pretend you're so hard punk but just at a glance you won't last a second if given a chance
you say... you're so special
you say... you're so tough wake up... figure it out
i say enough is enough
you betray other feelings to get what you need you're full of empty promises that you'll never keep
don't tell yourself that it's okay cause i'm fking tired of the games you play you've become the one the one you most despised sad but true... in my eyes enough is enough is enough is enough is enough!
