

Rykers, True Colors

I take a look in the mirror i see a face
i hardly recognize a lack of self - esteem fuels the flame
that burns my eyes
the love... that i rejected the trust... that i disrespected it hurts... down inside scars run deep yet still i try to hide sticks and stones can break your bones but words can crush your heart i never realized the value till i took yours... apart!
ooooohh loss... true colors
ooooohh loss!
