

Rykers, When There's No Devide

clutching pictures randomly something helpful to find my way resurrect - some precious memories confidence - to reappear someday

.....someday.....when there's no divide
.....my ideals deserting me...

lost - in the system of my own confessions it's logic versus exclusionary concessions i'm running out of answers back against a selfbuild wall asking for a new direction but i refuse to let someone hear my call

.....no one - someone - no one - someone...

someone's help to find my way some suggestions - just one for today something pure to call my own surprise... surprise - the backward syndrom i'm too damn honest can't pretend that everything's alright maybe someday... when there's no divide!!

when - there's - no - divide!!!!

.....someday.....
