

Sabaton, In The Name Of God

Hide from the public eye
Choose to appear when it suits you Claim you're just, killing women and children

Fight when you choose to fight Hide in a cave when you're hunted like a beast, spawned from hell, utilizing fear

Chosen by god or a coward insane?
Stand up and show me your face!

Suicidal, in a trance
A religious army
fight without a uniform and hide in the crowd

Call it Holy, call it just Authorized by heaven
Leave your wounded as they die
and call it God's will Run when it's time to pay Fear consequence of your action Reappear, when your almost forgotten

Dream of a world in peace yet you cause destruction and pain Kill your own, a response of your actions

Chosen by god or a coward insane?
Stand up and show me your face!

Suicidal, in a trance
A religious army
fight without a uniform and hide in the crowd

Call it Holy, call it just
Authorized by heaven
Leave your wounded as they die
and call it God's will

Captured in all your lies, fear is in your eyes
Creature who's gone insane, your war is in vain

Trapped in a cage in stone we'll destroy your home
consequence of your action

Captured in all your lies, fear is in your eyes
Creature who's gone insane, your war is in vain

Trapped in a cage in stone
we'll destroy your home
consequence of your action
