Sabaton, Metal Machine

I have a phobia A fear of the dark Afraid to shoot strangers The animal talks

Guns scare me shitless But love gun's my friend The sentinel's coming But is this the end

Riding on this crazy train I'm going paranoid Watch me lose my mind And break the law

I'm a metal machine
It's close to midnight and
He's barking at the moon
I'm a metal machine
the rainbow in the dark is shining

I'm only metal machine
It's close to midnight and
He's barking at the moon
I'm a metal machine
The kings of metal ride the sky

Is this Saint Anger The ultimate sin Or have I really A black knight within

The gates of Babylon Are open and wide Shout at the devil There's nowhere to hide

Fighting for the world to keep The wild child in it's cage Broke my metal heart Against the wall

I'm a metal machine
It's close to midnight and
He's barking at the moon
I'm only metal machine
The rainbow in the dark is shining

I'm a metal machine
It's close to midnight and
He's barking at the moon
Come touch my metal machine
The kings of metal ride the sky

Come touch my metal machine It's close to midnight and He's barking at the moon I'm the metal machine The rainbow in the dark is shining

Come touch my metal machine It's close to midnight and He's barking at the moon I'm the metal machine

The kings of metal ride the sky

I'm only metal machine
It's close to midnight and
He's barking at the moon
I'm the metal machine
The rainbow in the dark is shining

Come touch my metal machine Now we will never fall We're masters of the world Come touch my metal machine Now we will never fall the Masters Of the [Note: The song ends on 'of the'. This is not incomplete.]
