

Sabaton, Unbreakable

It's on the Crimson skies, hell's horizon, a trap will spring unaware of a presence are we marching straight to their doom We open path for war, ready for fire, stand by, to charge, counting down as they march into destruction, their time has come

They'll never know we give no warning,
we set a trap, they took the bait,
leading them straight into hell,
they will not live to tell the tale.
We'll strike at dusk and fight till dawn,
tonight our foe is bound to fail.
Our time is now already at arms

Upon a chosen ground, dead men marching,
no sign of hope Victory will be ours,
before the dawn breaks,
tonight, we charge

They'll never know we give no warning,
we set a trap, they took the bait,
leading them straight into hell,
they will not live to tell the tale.
We'll strike at dusk and fight till dawn,
tonight our foe is bound to fail.
Our time is now already at arms.

Chaos and disorder,
sound of the attack,
charging down the mountain,
frontal assault.
Guns enlight the darkness,
mortars rip the ground,
like a force of nature,
shaking the field.

They never knew we gave no warning,
we set a trap, they took the bait,
Cut off
Retreat
Released
Unleashed
The Beast
Within
Berserker Rage is Released
Unleashed
A storm
A force
Unbreakable war machine

Victims of the ambush, stains the ground with blood,
fields of execution Murderous plans.
Soldiers turn to madmen,
in the dead of night.
Fighting without fury,
fiery eyes.

They never knew we heed no warning,
we set a trap, they took the bait,
Cut off
Retreat

Released
Unleashed
Within
Berserker Rage is Released
Unleashed
A storm
A force
Unbreakable war machine
Unleashed
Within
Berserker Rage is Released
