

Sabrina Carpenter, Tomorrow Starts Today

[Verse 1]

You're standing on the edge
And everything I know has blown away
Life is upside down
But anywhere it goes, I'll work it out

[Pre-Chorus]

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh, here we go

[Chorus]

I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way
I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way

[Verse 2]

I'm looking straight ahead into the unknown
I'm not afraid
This fight has just begun
I'll take the highs and lows
So bring it on

[Pre-Chorus]

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh, here we go

[Chorus]

I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way
I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way
All the way

[Bridge]

Sometimes life's a rollercoaster
Takes you up-up-up
And then it spins you 'round
So throw your hands up in the air
And go all (go all out)
Make it count (1, 2, 3)

[Chorus]

I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way
I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way
I'm ready for tomorrow (I'm ready for tomorrow)
There ain't no map to follow (There ain't no map to follow)
I'm ready for tomorrow
Tomorrow starts today
There ain't no map to follow
But I'm with you all the way
All the way
