

Sabrina Taylor, Dancing Alone

Took a bite of the Apple was feeling insecure
not my problem anymore
I made a change like the wind blowing south
I found the currant, figured it out oh.....

(C)
If I could save you now
I would run around the world
give you
everything you need
bring you happiness
I would
paint you a picture
of a happy ever - after
show you
what it's like
give it back...
and if your dancing alone
I will dance with you

Like a trembling flower hides from the rain
she closed her senses, finds a way cause nothing here's for sure still asking why it hurts being pulled out by the roots

(C)
If I could
Save you now
I would Run around the world
give you
everything you need
bring you happiness
I would
paint you a picture
of a
happy ever-after
show you
what it's like
give it back
and if your dancing alone
I will dance with you.....
