

Saccharine Trust, We Don't Need Freedom

We don't need freedom
We don't need freedom
Freedom is what ruined your brain
With creativity drugs and pain
Freedom is what let you run wild
Explain freedom to your fatherless child
We don't need freedom
Do we now
Freedom preaches disobedience
Idiot rebellion false allegiance
Pride waste lust and greed
We're free to obey all of these Comfortably that's how we'll be
Enough for you plenty for me
We won't need actors or rock stars
All we'll want is farmers and soldiers
We don't need freedom
We don't need freedom
We don't need freedom
We don't need do we
