

Sacred Tuesday, Come Play

What would you do to get ahead lie to lie I could say I've lived Oh what tangled webs we weave when at first we practice to deceive With the flick of the wrist wont you please Roll the dice and you will see there's only room enough for greed between you and me
You lay above the ground and tremble in the sand
You found the many a treason where our reason is bound in hand
I see the Earth beneath Screaming out just to see Oh how we cry as we lose the Treason's of the sea
I see your face hit the rocks watching an east to west coast shock please oh please won't someone stop these wretched hands of a clock Please stop
please stop
treason is any mans game Come take a gamble Come Play
Come Play
