

Sacrilege, Without Delight

(Music: Berholtz, Dinsdalle, Svensson)

(Lyrics: Dinsdalle, Svensson)

There's a land without delight were saints immortal were slain Infinite day expelled by night and pleasures unite in pain In this land without delight thousands of candles glow within their flame of misty light my blood will always flow

Drown me in the crimson sky
and utopian disease
The spirit of all life will die
Hail the godless seas

(Repeat first)

Come burn with me in the oean so deep
The mirror of our soul
Burn, burn with me

Drown me in the crimson sky
and utopian disease
The chaos of heavens die will fall into the seas
